

THE NATION has heard a lot of talk about democracy. But, if Americans were asked to give their conception of the term, there would be 150 million different answers.

Monday evening, three judges listened to six students give their impression of the abstraction. And there were six different answers applied.

JUDGES COL. John E. Earle, Atty. Henry C. Warner and Gere Hassel, Telegraph reporter, had the problem of selecting the best concept.

And it was a problem. Three men each had to apply their idea of an abstraction to those of six high school youths and choose a winner.

THE CONTEST, sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce in Dixon was one of thousands to be held throughout the nation. An estimated 5 million sophomores, juniors, and seniors in America's schools were pondering the question of democracy and presenting their findings to "judges."

Monday evening's session in Loveland Community house featured competition by Lee county high school winners. As a part of the Jaycee Americanism program, students were asked to write, positively, on the subject of Democracy.

AFTER A screening process in the county as in the nation, teachers selected school winners, to be entered in county contests.

Lee county winners were heard last night. Their talks were judged on the basis of content, how well the contestant approached the subject of Democracy positively, speaking for democracy and not against other government processes.

SECONDLY, THEY were judged on the element of delivery, upon the suitability for broadcast and not for oratorical or public speaking purposes. And thirdly, they were judged for originality.

Two winners came forth. David Murphy, Dixon high school, took first prize. Gerald Page, Franklin Grove high school, won honorable mention.

Chairman Tom Bemis of the Jaycee Americanism committee will record their work and forward the recording to the state contest where a national contest will be chosen.

Other county entries were Leon Florschütz, Pawpaw; Marie Ems, Lee Center high school; Francis Robert Vaupe, Ashton high school, and Carol Shippert, Amboy high school.

IN CHOOSING a winner, the judges were faced with one very difficult decision. Were the students actually speaking about democracy?

With slight exception, the trend of the talks seemed to reflect the concept of "freedom," not democracy. This was agreed upon by the judges. The students, by and large, were not talking about democracy. They were talking about a by-product of democracy, freedom.

DEMOCRACY, as defined by some of the nation's foremost political scientists, mean one thing alone... majority rule. That definition does not guarantee freedom. Even with a majority rule, freedom can be restricted. Minority groups are aware of that.

Students should know that freedom is inherent only in the manner people conduct their right to govern themselves. If a majority of the citizens vote to persecute a minority group, democracy would become an evil.

In America, where people are attempting to live and let live, to practice equality among mankind, to follow sound religious ways of life, freedom has a chance.

Students also must realize that freedom alone is not enough to insure a peaceful, country or world. With freedom comes responsibility.

To say that Americans are completely free, is false. Freedom can only exist with responsibility. People must be held accountable for their use of freedom.

Freedom does not mean democracy, nor democracy freedom. What is important is how we conduct our democracy and how we appreciate our freedom. Realizing this, the youth of the nation may avoid abusing, and may even foster, the best in democracy and freedom.

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE is preparing to welcome Santa Claus. Pictured above a workman readying for the big day of his arrival by putting his picture on the Galena avenue arch. Santa's expected to arrive at 3 p. m. on Friday in a welcoming parade. He'll be here on Saturday also to see that the kiddies get their pre-Christmas candy. He is expected to arrive by plane and be transported here from the airport. He'll return on Dec. 13 and will be seen in Dixon from then at 3 to 5 p. m., until Christmas.

Dixon Waitress Missing

Truck Hits Tree; Area Man Killed

PAWPAW—(Special)—William E. Buchanan, 24, Pawpaw, died this morning as an ambulance rushed him to Rockville hospital about 15 minutes after a pickup truck he had been driving hit a tree head-on along Rt. 61 three-quarters of a mile south of Rt. 30.

Fred Horner, Ogle county coroner, said the youth had suffered a broken neck in the accident, which occurred about 9:30 o'clock.

Slipped From Road

The truck, owned by Buchanan's brother-in-law, George Hopkins, also of Pawpaw, apparently went out of control after it slipped onto the shoulder of the highway while traveling north. The vehicle went down and up an embankment along the highway before crashing into the tree.

Horner said it was raining at the time.

Buchanan, who lived with his brother-in-law and sister, reportedly was employed by William Worsley, Mendota, as a truck driver.

Pawpaw Graduate

He was a graduate of Pawpaw high school.

Survivors include his father, William, also of Pawpaw.

The body was to be brought from the Rockville hospital to the Torman funeral home here this afternoon, where arrangements will be completed.

Pay Delinquent Taxes or Face Warrant: Finch

The county treasurer's office is currently issuing distress warrants to citizens delinquent in paying their personal property taxes.

"People who pay their delinquent taxes before the distress warrant is issued will escape paying additional charges for warrant expenses," said County Treasurer G. P. Finch.

According to Finch, some warrants have already been served and an undetermined number will be issued in the near future.

Distress warrants are not sent through the mails, said Finch. They're delivered personally by the sheriff or one of his representatives.

Additional expenses added to the delinquent tax costs when a warrant is served amount to a $2 service charge, a $1 return expense, and costs of transportation in serving the warrant.

Search for Mrs. Tabor Of Nachusa

Mother Reports To Police After Failure to Return

Dixon police are checking a missing person's report concerning the disappearance of a Nachusa woman.

Mrs. Evelyn Tabor, 17, of Nachusa, was reported missing Monday by her mother, Mrs. Laval Shank, with whom she was staying, after she failed to return home from work Sunday morning.

Cafe Worker

Mrs. Tabor was employed at the Spot cafe, Dixon, as a waitress. According to cafe proprietor Lloyd Krause, she left work at the regular time of 2 a. m. Sunday.

Krause said that she gave no indication that she wouldn't return to work Monday.

When she left the cafe, he said, she remarked that she'd see him Monday night when she returned to work.

Her mother made an investigation of her whereabouts, including a check of bus and train depots. No one remembers her leaving the city.

Joyce Hardesty, the missing woman's sister, said that Mrs. Tabor had never done anything like this before but that she might have left town of her own free will. As yet, there is no indication of foul play.

Mrs. Tabor is the mother of a five-month-old daughter. She is believed to have had money on her person at the time of her disappearance.

Received Money

According to her sister, she had just received money from her estranged husband, John, for care of the child.

Miss Hardesty said that her sister intended to get a divorce.

"She was supposed to have filed (Continued on Page 6)

Meany Heads A.F.L.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The American Federation of Labor today chose 58-year-old George Meany as its new president and made a new bid to the CIO for a merger.

Meany was elected unanimously by the AFL's 14-member executive council as successor to the late William Green.

Another Named

William F. Schnitzer, 46, of Chicago, was unanimously selected to be the AFL's secretary-treasurer, the post vacated by Meany.

Green died last Friday at the age of 82, after serving as the AFL's chief executive for more than a quarter century.

Meany told newsmen the AFL council also had reactivated a nine-man committee on union with the CIO and had empowered it to invite the rival labor organization to join in new discussions on a merger.

Such talks have been conducted off and on many times in the past without success.

30th Month Of Korean War Starts

SEOUL—(AP)—Brisk fighting on the Central and Western Fronts today ushered in the 30th month of the Korean War.

British and Australian night raiders drove into the Red lines and clashed with Chinese troops for more than eight hours. Brilliant gunfire pierced the pre-dawn darkness on the Western Front.

Allied infantrymen on the touchy Central Front stormed back at dawn and recaptured two key outposts near Red-held Jackson Heights. The Chinese had captured the positions in the night.

Temperatures climbed across the battlefield, bringing welcome relief from chilling cold.

Despite cloudy weather B26 Marauders roared over Communist supply routes Monday night and reported 85 Red trucks destroyed.

Damage Heavy In Accidents Here Monday

Two accidents, both involving considerable damage, happened within 75 minutes of each other Monday afternoon in Dixon, according to police reports.

Charles Alan Smith, 46, son of the driver, Charles T. Smith, 46, 1228 W. Fourth st., was injured about the face when the car operated by his father collided with that of Clarence Seyster, 53, of 326 W. Everett st., at College avenue and Fourth street.

The accident occurred at 5:45 p. m. as Smith was heading east on Fourth street and Seyster was going north on College avenue. They collided at the intersection.

There was considerable damage to both cars. Smith's car hit Seyster's left side. Neither of the drivers were injured.

Seventy-five minutes earlier, Mrs. Marjorie Fish, 25, 924 Institute blvd., collided with Marie Trader, 38, Rt. 2, Dixon, on First street near Brooks' drug store.

According to police, Mrs. Fish was going west on First street when Miss Trader pulled from the curb and hit the passing vehicle. Damage was considerable but no one was injured.

Korea's Future Nobody Else's Business: Rhee

RUNNING MATES REUNITED—President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower (right) and Vice-President-elect Richard M. Nixon shake hands at Eisenhower's headquarters in New York after lengthy conference. Nixon disclosed that he will represent Eisenhower at the inauguration in Mexico, Dec. 1, of President Enrique Ruiz Cortines. He told newsmen his visit with the president-elect was to bring himself up to date on "developments." (AP wirephoto)

UN Told How Korea Feels About Truce

Spokesman Says His Country Must Agree on Cease-Fire

By STANLEY JOHNSON

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y.—(AP)—South Korea announced today it would not accept any truce arranged by the United Nations against its wishes. President Syngman Rhee's foreign minister indicated that his government believes Korea's future is nobody else's business.

In a formal statement, Minister of Foreign Affairs Y. T. Pyun said:

Rhee's Statement

"The government of the Republic of Korea cannot and will not accept, against its wishes, any arrangement or agreement or resolution in regard to the disposition of what it considers to be its citizens or part of its historical domain, made or reached or adopted without its official and full participation with the unrestricted voice sovereign nations usually exercise in similar matters of exclusive concern to themselves."

The statement, which appeared to rule out acceptance of a truce worked out by the U.N. General Assembly or the unified command, was made on the eve of a scheduled trip to Korea by President-elect Eisenhower.

Korea has gone all out to plan welcomes for Eisenhower and it appeared that the government would attempt to put this view over with him.

Has Agreed

The general has already expressed general agreement with the Truman administration's principles for negotiating a truce.

South Korea is not a member of the U.N. nor is it taking part in the negotiations at Panmunjom.

The South Koreans have issued a booklet two weeks ago strongly denouncing U.N. truce efforts and calling for complete liberation of both North and South Korea and the creation of a U. N. armed force of two million Koreans.

In a speech to the U.N.'s political committee, South Korea's chief observer also said the only end to the war which his government could accept was the liberation of all Korea and the creation of an international demilitarized zone in Manchuria to protect the border.

Denounces Resolutions

He denounced all resolutions now before the committee for ending the Korean conflict.

Today's statement was significant in three ways:

1. It reiterated the position that the disputed prisoners-of-war—who the Communists say must be sent home—are considered by the Pusan government to be its citizens.
2. It reiterated the South Korean demand that the U. N. conquer (Continued on Page 6)

Ike Likely To Holiday In Korea

NEW YORK—(AP)—President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters buzzed with speculation today that he may try to spend Thanksgiving in Korea with the GIs.

Owing to a security blackout covering all details of his trip, no official information was available.

A number of indications, however, pointed to the possibility that the President-elect is about ready to leave for the war zone. They were:

1. He has made two more key designations. After his inauguration, he will present for confirmation by the Senate Ezra Taft Benson of Salt Lake City, Utah, for secretary of agriculture. And he will name as his White House assistant, Gov. Sherman Adams of New Hampshire.
2. Gen. Mark Clark, supreme U. N. commander in the Far East, has arrived in Seoul, capital of Korea, to supervise preparations for Eisenhower's arrival.
3. The President-elect tapered off in his appointments for today, setting aside most of it for visits from friends, some relatives, and officers of Columbia University. Eisenhower has announced his resignation as the university's president effective Jan. 19.

Princeton Woman Dies In Collision

MENDOTA, Ill.—A woman and her 80-year-old chauffeur were killed Monday night in a head-on collision of their automobile and a truck laden with livestock.

The dead were Mrs. Dorothy Bailey Ford, about 47, of Glencoe and Princeton, member of a leading Bureau County family, and her driver, D'Jima Jahege.

Their car collided with a stock truck on Route 24, four miles east of Mendota. Paul Hill of Columbus Junction, Ia., driver of the truck, was taken to a hospital for treatment of minor injuries. His truck carried a load of 90 hogs and 30 sheep. Some were killed, others fled.

Mrs. Ford was the wife of Kenneth Ford, Chicago business man, and daughter of H. U. Bailey, long prominent in Republican politics and former publisher of the Bureau County Republican, a weekly newspaper.

Sergeant Offered to Sell Jet Secrets, Army Claims

TOKYO—(AP)—Sgt. Giuseppe Cascio, swarthy veteran of nine years in the U. S. air force, today was charged with conspiring to sell secret information on America's top jet plane in Korea to the enemy.

The Air Force announcement did not identify the enemy. Presumably it referred to the Communists.

An Air Force officer said the secret information was contained in films of the souped-up F86 jet fighter, which has racked up an 8-1 victory margin over Russian-made MIG15s in Korean air battles.

Lab Technician

Cascio, 34, was a photographic laboratory technician with the 49th Air Base Group. He doubled as a photographer and handy man.

The Air Force said Cascio obtained the secret information from Sgt. John P. Jones of Manchester, Mass. Jones was attached to the Far East Air Forces Headquarters Squadron in Tokyo.

Jones and Cascio were arrested Sept. 21. A medical board later declared Jones insane and he was shipped back to the U. S. No court martial charges have been filed against him.

Cascio, if convicted, could be sentenced to life imprisonment. No date or place for his court martial trial has been set.

The charge against him says Cascio "did wrongfully offer for sale to unauthorized persons classified military writing... with reason to believe said writing would reach the enemy."

Wife Concurs

In Tucson, Ariz., Cascio's 44-year-old wife declared, "Anyone who does anything to undermine his nation deserves whatever happens to him."

"This thing has just made me sick. We never got along. We were divorced once and I foolishly married him again."

She said her husband left for Korea early this year. She has not heard from him since June.

Maj. Mathew Stanhope of Whiteville, N. C., who arrested Cascio, said the stocky, heavy-set sergeant submitted meekly.

"The guy gave me no argument," Stanhope reported.

Most Everyone Happy With Ike's Latest Appointees

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President-elect Eisenhower's latest appointments—one a surprise, the other somewhat expected—have come in for a general round of applause.

The surprise was the designation of Ezra Taft Benson as Eisenhower's secretary of agriculture. Benson, 53, has devoted much of his life to agriculture but he has been less well known in that field recently than as a leader of the Mormon church in Salt Lake City.

Adams No Surprise

Not unexpected was the choice of Gov. Sherman Adams of New Hampshire to a key spot in Eisenhower's high command. Adams, also 53, headed the Eisenhower campaign. He was named to be assistant to the President, a job that includes liaison work between the White House and most of the federal departments and agencies.

Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, to whom Benson is distantly related, had this comment for newsmen at Columbus:

"I think it is an excellent appointment. I certainly joined in the recommendation but I can't claim him as my recommendation."

Six Named to Date

The six cabinet appointees to date: John Foster Dulles as secretary of state, Charles E. Wilson as secretary of defense, James M. Humphrey as secretary of the Treasury, Herbert Brownell as attorney general, Oregon's Gov. Douglas McKay as secretary of interior and Benson as secretary of agriculture.

Two noncabinet roles also have been cast, former Gov. Harold Stassen of Minnesota as mutual security administrator and Adams as assistant to the President.

Some comments on Benson's appointment included:

Farm Bureau Head Speaks

Allan B. Kline, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation—Top-notch... excellent background... administrative ability of a high order...

Sen. Watkins (R-Utah)—He's not for a lot of giveaway programs but he will be for the things necessary to maintain farm prosperity.

Sen. Carlson (R-Kan)—A very good appointment.

Sen. Mundt (R-SD)—Eminently well qualified.

Ike's Latest Choices

NEW CABINET MEMBERS—President-elect Eisenhower announced in New York that Ezra Taft Benson (left) of Salt Lake City, to be his secretary of agriculture. At the same time he said following his inauguration he will designate Gov. Sherman Adams (right) of New Hampshire, as assistant to the president.

Oregon Man Hurt in Crash Of 3 Trucks

OREGON—James T. Downey, 40, Oregon, was injured Monday afternoon in a three-truck crash on Rt. 30 about 2 miles east of Shabbona.

Downey, driver of a pickup truck, was taken to Glidden Memorial hospital, DeKalb. Extent of his injuries was not immediately able to be determined.

William H. Book, 27, Creston, Ia., driver of a semi-trailer truck, and Rodney W. Dannewitz, 34, Waterman, driving a small tow truck, were not injured.

State Police Officer Arlyn Waite said the accident occurred after Downey tried to pass two cars at once and was unable to get around them in time. He apparently applied the brakes, trying to get back in his own lane, and his car went into a skid.

The Downey truck slid into the path of the semi-trailer truck. Dannewitz, who was driving behind the semi, applied his brakes and skidded. His truck went into a ditch and rolled over once.

'Giants' Invade College

COLD FEET FOR TALL STUDENTS—Housemother Maude Ferner, of Saylor Hall at Baldwin-Wallace college, in Berea, Ohio, explains to some of her tall boarders why they've been suffering from cold feet. Reason: Short sheets and shorter beds. The college was unprepared for an invasion of tall students, and at least ten king-size men ranging from six feet, five inches, to six feet, nine inches in altitude are now enrolled at the school. Harried officials are trying to find sufficient seven-foot beds for their elongated students, and the basketball coach is disconsolate. Most of the tall men aren't too interested in sports. From left: Thomas Blackwood, Lenny Peterson, Jon Gilder, Ed Simpson and Ronald Comerford confer with the housemother.

'Lost' Ogle Plane Eludes First Search Craft, Found by Second

POLO—Six planes from Ogle squadron of the Civil Air Patrol flew the county-wide search and rescue mission Sunday, finding the "lost" plane.

Robert Hall and Clifford Powell "planted" the plane, and the first pilot and observer to search the area where the plane was down failed to sight it.

It required the eyes of Pilot Paul Webster to finally sight the craft in a field on the farm of Harley Travis in Pine Creek township.

After return of the pilots from the search mission, two cargo parachute drops were made at the airport. Contents of the cargo chutes were refreshments for the squadron.

December 1 is the 11th anniversary of the Civil Air Patrol which was organized in 1941, just seven days before the attack on Pearl Harbor. Ogle squadron CAP dedicated the mission Sunday to the 11th anniversary of CAP.

The Sterling squadron CAP visited Ogle squadron with 10 planes, carrying their cadets and seniors Sunday afternoon. Ogle squadron expects to return the call soon.

His wife, Rose, was at his bedside in the Portsmouth naval hospital when he died. She had been living in Rock Falls with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Farley Bright.

Five men were killed instantly and 31 more injured in the two-ship collision.

FRANKLIN GROVE—The Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Wenger have arrived to take charge of the Church of the Brethren.

The Rev. Wenger, formerly of Grand Rapids, has taught at Manchester college for a number of years. For the last 10 years he has been in pastorates at Springfield, Indianapolis and Grand Rapids.

Is All Meat, Meat?

Why sure. But think of all the different kinds and grades. There's a big difference between a crown roast and soup meat.

It's the same way with Briquets. They're all called Briquets, but what a whole of a difference between ordinary Briquets and those made by UNITED.

UNITED Briquets boast pure concentrated coal. No trimmings, no fat, no bone... just the right combination of top quality coal, and with no moisture.

They're so good that they're backed by Guarantee Tags in every ton. Don't say "Briquets"... say UNITED Briquets, if you want quicker, better heat at lower cost.

FORREST ROBBINS

Robbins Starts Term on IAA Policy Board

AMSOY — Forrest Robbins, Amboy, president of the Lee County Farm Bureau, has begun a term on the board of directors of the Illinois Agricultural Association.

Robbins, who was elected to the board at the IAA's annual convention last week in Chicago, has been active in the Farm Bureau for many years. He is also a director of the Lee County Service Co., a Farm Bureau affiliate.

He farms 385 acres in Amboy township, as carried and has four children.

Robbins was nominated for his new post at the District 13 caucus Nov. 19. The district consists of Lee, Ogle, Whiteside, Carroll, Stephenson and Jo Daviess counties.

He succeeds Homer Curtiss of Jo Daviess county, who retired after serving on the board 10 years.

Voting delegates representing Lee county at the IAA convention were:

Robbins; Bernard Stenzel, May township; Lennie Spratt, East Grove township; Roy Ransom, Nelson township; Burnell Henert, Reynolds township; Ed Pohl, Brooklyn township, and Lee Fisel, Nachusa township.

(3) Removal of artificial barriers or restrictions that deliberately seek to prevent the flow of goods and services in compliance with price and demand.

Realizing that many people are dissatisfied with the present methods of nominating our presidents, much time and discussion were given to this subject. However, also realizing the dangers of changing from our present methods, the matter was referred to a committee for further study and will be brought up at next year's convention.

To promote parity of opportunity among individuals, groups and nations, Herschel Newsom in his opening address outlined a three-point program:

(1) Promotion of increased international trade through a two-price program that would achieve an American price level for commodities consumed domestically and provide foreign markets without cartels or dumping.

(2) An export debenture certificate plan that would equalize

Farm Chief Named

Ike Appoints
Azra T. Benson
To Department

By OVID A. MARTIN
Associated Press Farm Reporter
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration is expected to build its farm aid programs largely around efforts to broaden markets at home and abroad.

This became apparent today with President-elect Eisenhower's selection of Azra T. Benson of Salt Lake City to be secretary of agriculture to succeed Charles F. Brannan, a controversial figure in the Truman official family.

Benson is a trained specialist in agricultural marketing, and as such believes farmers would need less federal aid if they did a better job of marketing their products.

Benson's designation fits into a long-standing Republican contention that farm programs of the Roosevelt-Truman administrations depended too heavily upon production controls and subsidies to hold up farm prices.

Republicans have promised to continue farm price-support programs, but they argue that need for them would be greatly lessened if new markets and outlets for farm surpluses could be developed.

Benson said in New York Monday he agreed with Eisenhower's farm policy statements and the GOP party platform on the subject, but he declined to discuss specific programs except to say he favored some price supports.

Benson headed one of the major national organizations—the National Council of Farmer Co-Operatives—between 1939 and 1944.

He left the co-operative council post in 1944 to become an apostle for the Mormon church.

The new secretary is expected to:

1. Emphasize the co-operative idea in attacking farm problems of production and marketing.
2. Urge farmers to depend more on local self-help and less on federal aid.
3. Emphasize measures aimed at showing farmers how to become more efficient producers and marketers.
4. Make greater use of state-controlled agricultural extension services.

Young Exposition Exhibitor

TEN-YEAR-OLD Marjorie Ann Angler, Sublette, will be one of the youngest exhibitors at the 53rd International Livestock Exposition opening Saturday in Chicago. Marjorie will show her Aberdeen-Angus steer, Plumey, pictured here with her. Two other Lee county 4-Hers, Francis Drew, Dixon, and Robert Kaecker, 17, Ashton, also will show stock at the exposition.

1953 Food Supply Looks Adequate, Expert Reports

URBANA—Supplies of feed and numbers of livestock in the United States will be pretty well in balance during the 1952-53 feeding year, according to the National Feed Survey Committee.

S. W. Terrill, head of the swine division at the Illinois College of Agriculture and Illinois member of the survey committee, reports that an estimated 126 million tons of grains and other concentrates are available for livestock and poultry feeds. That's slightly more than the amount fed during the 1951-52 year.

Crop yields varied widely in different areas of the U.S. this year. Corn-belt feed crops, for example, were moderately large, while drouth in the south and west cut deeply into feed supplies in those regions.

The corn for feed supply, up 7 per cent over 1951, is largely offset by much smaller supplies of both grain sorghums and barley and a slightly smaller supply of oats. Little change is expected in the supply of wheat mill-feeds and other low-protein by-products.

The supply of oilseed meals, animal proteins and grain proteins, on an oilmeal equivalent basis, will be about 2 per cent below the 14 million tons fed in 1951-52.

Terrill reports that total livestock numbers show little change from last year's figures. Dairy cattle numbers will be about the same. Increases in beef cattle, chickens and commercial broilers will be offset by decreases in hogs, laying hens, turkeys, sheep and horses.

On the Chicago market a load of 53 hogs from another Whiteside county shipper, Lawrence DeNeve and Rapp, Prophetstown, gained an average of 4.5 pounds per head in the time between arrival and sale.

On arrival the hogs weighed 16,820 pounds and when sold 17,285, a total gain of 375 pounds.

Three Youths To Represent Lee County

CHICAGO (Special)—A third 4-H member will be representing Lee county at the 53rd International Livestock Exposition & Horse show scheduled to open here Saturday, it was announced today by show officials.

Francis Drew's name has been recorded on the entry list from Lee county together with Marjorie Angler, Sublette, and Robert Kaecker, Ashton.

Drew exhibited the grand champion beef animal at the Lee County 4-H show Aug. 26 in Dixon. All three youths will exhibit angus steers in the Exposition's Junior cattle show.

With a final count of entries still to be completed for the Exposition—the country's largest stock show—a total of 34 states already are scheduled to send representatives, show officials report.

The Exposition will have an eight-day run, through Dec. 6, in the International Amphitheater.

Entries for the individual livestock classes closed Nov. 1, and the management anticipates it will equal the largest in years past. Exhibits for the 30th International Grain and Hay show, world's foremost farm crops show, closed Nov. 10, and for the carlot competitions Nov. 22.

The carlot contests, in which a carload of steers, sheep, and swine is the unit of competition, are the largest at any livestock show in the world.

Illinois has the heaviest representation of any state. Exhibitors are listed thus far from 63 counties of the state. Iowa is next with 45 counties and Ohio is third with 28 counties.

Lee county exhibitors will leave here Thursday as all Junior exhibits in the beef show must be in place by 6 p.m. Friday.

Calves will be judged by a weed-ing committee on Friday and animals which pass their inspection will then proceed to the amphitheater to await the Junior show.

When the animals are exhibited Saturday, the class will include some of the top individuals in the country.

The indicated yield per acre of corn for Lee county according to the state office of agricultural statistics is 75 bushels. The only two other counties to exceed this are Stephenson with 77 bushels and Carroll with 78.

The state average is 58 bushels. The indicated yield of soybeans is 31 bushels. Seven other counties equalled this and three counties exceeded it. The state average for soybeans is 24.5 bushels.

As far as I know, this is the highest corn average Lee county has ever had. It usually runs in the neighborhood of 60 to 63 bushels. The weatherman was with us this year.

It will take a lot of careful planning to reach this level again next year.

In Illinois tests on feeding feeder lambs shelled corn, soybean meal and alfalfa hay free choice in separate feeders produced gains of half a pound per day. But death losses amounted to 11 per cent.

When the same feeds were mixed at the ratio of 42.5 per cent corn, 7.5 per cent soybean oil meal and 50 per cent hay and self-fed, the gains fell to a third of a pound a day. But death losses were cut to 1 per cent.

Half of the lambs in each lot were vaccinated for overeating disease, and there was no difference in death losses caused by vaccination.

Free World Hoping for French Victory in Indo-China

For six years the Communist-led Viet Minh rebels have been battling the French forces in Indo-China. Many times the Reds have seriously threatened the major French base at Hanoi. But, one way or another, the French have always managed to hurl back the menacing attackers.

As in Korea and as in Malaya, where British units have been fighting an endless war against jungle rebels, the Indo-Chinese war has seemed to offer no way out of costly, discouraging stalemate.

But recent developments have at last infused the French cause with new hope. The Viet Minh armies may be heading for their biggest defeat of the war.

It all began when the Reds launched their greatest offensive of the entire six years, sending three crack divisions slicing southwestward into mountainous terrain in an apparent effort to encircle Hanoi—which lies to the east.

The Communist drive came from the northeast, the Viet Minh stronghold, where main arteries link the Reds with Red China, source of materials and site of training bases. In early stages the offensive had marked success.

Then suddenly the tide turned. In the biggest airborne operation of the war, the French dropped 2500 parachutists in the enemy's rear. They cut the Reds' major supply line and only escape route back to their northeastern centers. Road blocks were established, and raiding French tanks fanned out to produce havoc in Red territory.

The advancing wave of Red armies slowed to a halt. Their initiative is gone. They find themselves holding Indo-Chinese soil which, by itself, has no particular strategic or military value. And they find their way home cut off. Instead of pushing on, they now must figure how to get back, at the least cost to their top-grade forces.

They are not yet defeated, but only embarrassed. The French maneuver, aided mightily by enlarged military supplies from America, was a brilliant stroke. But it will not be marked down as a victory until the French have imposed a heavy cost in men and materials on the beleaguered Viet Minh rebels.

The whole free world waits with hope for a decisive turn in the fighting.

NATO Waits Ike's Word

The members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization have wisely decided to put their 1953 defense planning for Europe on a tentative basis until they can hear what General Eisenhower proposes for NATO.

The NATO council is set to meet Dec. 15 to set next year's military goals. But it now appears a second meeting, in March, will be held to modify or confirm these goals in the light of later American developments.

Except as a preliminary, the Dec. 15 date seems utterly impractical, anyway. NATO makes up its plans for the calendar year. But America, chief source of economic and military aid, votes this assistance by the fiscal year—starting and ending in July.

Thus, in December, NATO can never know what amount of help to expect after July 1 of the following year. The participating countries can measure the first six months, of course, since money for such aid always is voted by congress in the previous spring. But that's not enough of a guide.

This situation plainly is aggravated in a presidential year when a change-over occurs, as is the case this time. NATO cannot expect Eisenhower to disclose his intentions—except in the most general way—before he has authority to make decisions.

Hereafter, therefore, the NATO planning sessions before the year-end should be viewed as strictly tentative and exploratory. The real decisions must necessarily be delayed until the shape and size of the American budget for the coming fiscal year is known, and until the lines of authority in the U. S. are fixed.

Don't Give Idea You're Biased Against In-Laws

The chief complaint that comes to this column from mothers-in-law is that the girls their sons marry have one way of treating their own family and another way of treating their husband's family.

Over and over again come the protests:

That the daughter-in-law arranges things so that the couple spends far more time with his family than with hers.

That she is always eager to have her parents visit, but reluctant to ask his anywhere nearly as often.

That holidays are spent with her family, not his. And that grandchildren hear only good of one set of grandparent, but frequent criticism of the other set.

New-Marrieds Should Be On Their Guard

So watch it, you young wives just starting out. Be fair in all of your dealings with two sets of parents.

Be sure that both sets are made equally welcome in the home you and your husband share.

Be sure that you are agreeable about visiting his parents as your husband is about visiting yours. Make sure that the small, thoughtful things you do for your parents are also done for your husband's parents.

And above all, teach your children to have the same kind of love and respect for both sets of grandparents.

If you do less than this, then your husband's parents have a right to feel that they are being cheated.

They have a right to expect to be treated in every way as well as your own parents are treated.

What's Right?

You are introduced to a newcomer to your town that you should like to know better.

WRONG: Wait for the newcomer to make the first gesture of hospitality.

RIGHT: You extend the first invitation.

WESTBROOK PEGLER

McGranery Shouldn't Have Last Word on Alien Gangster, Whom He Has Not Deported, Pegler Says
(Copyright, 1962, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

The admission of James McGranery, our Attorney General who is qualifying for his variety letter in these last seconds of a crooked game, that we can't get rid of an alien gangster because a friendly neighbor won't take him back, should not be the last word in this type of problem.

The case in question is that of Allen Smiley, a wet-back from Windsor, Canada, who became a leader of that element which J. Edgar Hoover, in a memorable turn of phrase, called the criminal scum. Smiley has friends in the Hollywood underworld. This underworld, in turn, has politico-social relations with the underworld of government in Washington. The Hollywood cult wields a bad influence on government and public morals, because it actually has had access to the White House, Congress and the Department of Justice ever since 1933. Dismissals of indictments, pardons and premature paroles have been commonplace in this relation.

Smiley, like Willie Bluff, was a beau around Beverly Hills where cutting scrapes and domestic lamp-throws reached a fetching climax in the who-dunnit assassination of Bugsy Siegel as Smiley sat beside him on the couch looking at Virginia Hill's post card album. Smiley's criminal record is established beyond question and his status as a member of the Siegel-Green-spun underworld clique, which ran the Flamingo at Las Vegas, is verified in the annals of the FBI. The FBI also has the criminal record of Herman Greenspun, of Brooklyn, who recently muscled into Nevada politics under the strange patronage of Drew Pearson, in an attempt of mysterious eastern forces to cut down Senator Pat McCarran.

Greenspun studied law in the New York office of Vito Marcantonio, the nearest thing to an avowed Communist ever to sit in our Congress.

Pearson's resort to Communist leg-men or stooges in the quest of official secrets in Washington, is a notorious fact. One of Pearson's Washington lawyers turned up in Nevada to prosecute a lawsuit by Greenspun against McCarran and others. These developments set forth Pearson's friend Greenspun, the registered ex-convict, in his relation of advisor to Bugsy Siegel and revealed the whole Nevada group and the New York force in an interesting relationship to one another. Smiley was Siegel's debt collector. In this role he used threats.

Here we have a very undesirable criminal alien on our hands, and McGranery, unlike those predecessors who used the tax and postal laws to punish political opponents for misdoing of a much different sort, meekly folds his hands. He says he can do nothing about it. If this meant only a return to honest enforcement of the laws, by contrast with the use of grand juries to bring political opponents into line, Mr. McGranery might deserve applause. But if he actually can't persuade the White House and/or the State Department to put it up strong to the Canadian government, he at least could recommend another course.

The proposition here is that a criminal alien must be allowed to circulate without embarrassment worse than restriction to the roomy jurisdiction of a particular federal court. In Smiley's case, that cruising radius was widely enlarged by special permission of the judge to go to Houston, Tex., where he seems to have found congenial company, as he very easily could in Houston, and have his luxurious living.

Now, obviously, as long as well-behaved, patriotic American youth are shipped to onerous life in bleak surroundings in reward for civic virtue, it is most inappropriate that the likes of Smiley should be let to rove at will.

Whoever has investigated immigration and deportation matters these last fifteen years knows that it is futile to inquire how many other social vermin we have at large for the sole reason that some

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

Take Some Chances to Win Tournaments

By OSWALD JACOBY

Only a few of the West Coast bridge experts come East regularly to take part in the regular National Bridge Championships. By way of compensation, however, the West Coast runs its own championships in Los Angeles and San Francisco, thus providing the hundreds of experts in that region with first class tournament competition.

The hand shown today is taken from the recent "Bridge Week" held in Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Kauder held the North-South hands and got themselves into an ambitious grand slam contract.

The Kauders are among the best players on the coast, and they knew perfectly well that they were out on a limb with their grand slam contract, but they needed an unusually good score and decided to take the risk.

It doesn't take great skill to overbid a hand and then go down, as all of us have found out at one time or another. In this case, Arnold Kauder justified his ambitious bidding by making the contract.

He won the first trick in dummy with the king of clubs and immediately finessed the eight of hearts. When this finesse held, Kauder breathed again and then ran every last one of his trumps, discarding low diamonds and low spades from the dummy.

When declarer continued by cashing dummy's top diamonds, all hands were obliged to reduce to three cards. Dummy held the ace, jack of clubs and a spade while South held three spades.

prevent dummy's jack from winning a trick, and therefore could save only one spade. Declarer thus was able to win the last three tricks with the ace of clubs, the ace of spades, and the jack of spades.

Voice Of The People

To the Editor:

Last Thursday a spokesman for the Ground Observer Corps made the statement that of the 20,000 Observation Posts in the nation which are desperately needed to supplement the radar screen in detecting possible enemy planes, less than half are organized. Of those which have been set up less than half of them have watchers enough to man them full time.

It was this sort of half done defense against a possible attack which made the disaster at Pearl Harbor possible and cost the United States millions of casualties and billions of dollars of war costs and the loss of inconceivable amounts of materials of all kinds.

In spite of all this people in this country are so engrossed in their own pleasures and amusements that they will not recognize the fact that we are faced with another emergency of exactly the same sort at this minute. Only this time the enemy will not strike at a distant military strong point but at the heart of our manufacturing and transportation districts which is rightfully called the "Soft Underbelly of the nation."

When the actual raid takes place it will be too late to volunteer for watch duty. If one atom bomb reaches the target nothing can prevent disaster. The only thing that can prevent catastrophe is for volunteers to man the observation posts NOW and keep them manned twenty-four hours a day, 365 days of the year. THE EMERGENCY IS NOW—TODAY.

The situation in Dixon is deplorable. After the Dixon Observation Post was called for twenty-four hour duty in July, 150 watchers were enrolled and assigned to duty of two hours one day per week and these were secured for the most part by personal solicitation. This number was not enough to fully man the Post. Today less than fifty report for duty a week. The others have found that bowling, clubs, and a myriad of other things are more important and they cannot spare the time to help safeguard the country and probably prevent another war. There are well over a thousand members of veterans organizations in Dixon and less than twenty-five of them have volunteered for watch duty. Less than one per cent of the membership of the fraternal orders have offered their services.

Dixon citizens should hang their heads in shame especially when our neighbor Polo, with less than a third of the population has 188 watchers on continuous duty. To those few faithful watchers who are carrying on this vitally important patriotic duty go the thanks and appreciation of the Officers of the Post and the Civil Defense officials. Their names are:

George R. Barnhart Paul Scott
Wilson Bryant Donald Vails
Walter Falestrom Max Van Scoy
B. L. Frazer Marie Wagner
E. W. Jewett Freeman Hill
R. W. Kewah Mrs. Ray DeWorff
Ambrose Reuter Mrs. C. L. Ballard
Harold Schermer Mrs. A. G. Bowers
Robert Swany Frances Brewer
Joseph Lack Mrs. Robert Cottle
Lou Laydig Mrs. Dora B. Hughes
Clarence Adams Mrs. Mark Keller Jr.
W. E. Benablosom Mrs. Grace Puck
H. F. Becke Mrs. Rex Rankin
Dwight Chapman Mrs. Sidney Snow
John J. Fox Mrs. Florence Spielman
Richard Hess Casey Tally
Dean Hey Mrs. Eve Stroup
George Holland Mrs. H. F. Walder
M. J. Hurd Mrs. Robert E. Shaw

Rex Rankin Mrs. Helen Smith

The Dixon Observation Post, in its new location at the end of First Street has heat and shelter. There should be three watchers on duty on each two hour shift so that no one will be subjected to hardship. Any man or lady can give two hours once a week to safeguard the country, hours when they are not at work.

They are asked to face the facts and the situation squarely. Call any one of the following, Ambrose Reuter, Howard Swanson or Dean Hey, assistant chief observers, or Col. John E. Earl, supervisor, and volunteer for duty.

COL. JOHN E. EARL,
Supervisor

THE DOCTOR SAYS:

Bed Rest Is Necessary in Cases of Virus Pneumonia

A letter received some weeks ago serves as such an excellent introduction to the subject of virus pneumonia that it shall be quoted at some length.

"When I came down with virus pneumonia," writes Mrs. T., "I had been over the worst part of my cold for two weeks; then I started with a gradually rising temperature, and after a few hours I began to break out all around my lips with fever blisters. The same night my temperature went very high, and then I broke out into severe sweating and chills.

"The next few days were the same. At the time we were broke and I didn't have money for a doctor, and not knowing what was wrong I let it go for four days. But after I started coughing up blood I made up my mind that money or no money, I better find out what was wrong with me. Now, after several months, I still have to be careful and not strain too much, and I feel tired all the time."

The letter quoted brings up several important things about virus, or atypical pneumonia. This disease, like most colds and influenza, is caused by a virus, which is a tiny living organism too small to see under the microscope. As in Mrs. T.'s case, it often starts like an ordinary cold with cough, running eyes and nose, and perhaps some fever which may not be noticed at first.

Neglect is a dangerous thing, and Mrs. T. is lucky that the effects were not even worse. Certainly strict bed rest from the beginning is most desirable, and this is particularly true since treatment with drugs is of somewhat questionable value, though one of the relatives of penicillin—streptomycin—has been claimed by some to be useful.

LONG RECOVERY PERIOD

One of the most annoying things about virus pneumonia is the fact that complete recovery takes so long. It is true that very few victims of the disease die from it, but an X-ray film of the lungs taken weeks after the end of the acute illness will often show some changes still present.

This probably accounts for the usual story given by those who had it that they do not feel "right" for weeks or months. Since this is the case, those who have had virus pneumonia should realize that convalescence is a long-drawn-out process and they should not expect to regain their usual vigor and feeling of well-being for a very long time.

HOLLYWOOD — (NEA) — Behind the Screen: Joan Evans won't be pushing Kathryn Grayson and Jane Powell to one side as a high C lark, after all.

She's given up her vocal studies — "I heard a recording of my voice and was horrified," she confessed — and will concentrate on blossoming out as a young Lina or Ava in the dramatic department now that she's the bride of auto salesman Kirby Weatherly.

"Everybody still sees me as a child, so it's not going to be easy," 18-year-old Joan sighed. All's peaceful between Joan and her parents, filmmakers Dale Eunson and Katharine Albert, over her marriage, but she shrugged her shoulders to my question on whether Joan Crawford had been forgiven by the Eunsons for helping arrange her midnight hitching to Weatherly.

"I just don't know that," the Joan named Evans said.

Dr. Fitch Has Many Listeners For Dixon Talk

A large audience heard Dr. Franklin R. Fitch of Chicago, give an outstanding and illuminating talk on "Social Hygiene is a Family Affair" at Dixon High school Friday evening. The program was sponsored by North Central PTA with Mrs. Kenneth Gross, president of the PTA, welcoming the members and visiting PTA groups.

Mrs. Victor Eichler, program chairman and vice president of the PTA, introduced the speaker. Dr. Fitch has had 22 years experience in social hygiene education and is at present a member of the faculty of Northwestern university. He is also an executive director of the Illinois Social Hygiene League and social Hygiene chairman of the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Dr. Fitch defines Social Hygiene as the "Science of keeping well as applied to mating. Good sex education has its beginning in the cradle." During the first six years of life it is important to form a healthy attitude. Proper ideals should be stressed along the grade school level and followed in high school years by good habits. This can only be accomplished through the joint efforts of teachers and parents. Dr. Fitch explained there are two basic attitudes to which we must have a healthy approach: Anatomy of each sex, and creation of the family.

Early scientific teaching of the physiology and function of the child's body is the foundation for understanding of the Social roll of parenthood in family life. The child must be made to feel that he is part of the family with certain responsibilities. Such a person has security and is likely to be a good citizen in the school and on the playground. Questions concerning parenthood should be short, simple and honest. They should be welcomed and discussed in family groups.

"Human Growth" Dr. Fitch presented a film "Human Growth," which explained the steps in growth of both sexes from babyhood to maturity. Summarizing his lecture Dr. Fitch said, "Through the years—gradual development of wholesome ideals and healthy attitudes about social hygiene will make better parents and citizens." Books recommended by him on this vital subject were: "New Patterns of Sex Teaching"—Francis Strain. "Teen-Age Manual"—Edith Heal. "Being Born"—Francis Strain. "Blondes Prefer Gentlemen"—Elizabeth Daly. "Growing Up"—Karl de Schweinitz. "Let's Tell the Truth About Sex"—Howard Whitman.

Three Units of Home Bureau Meet in Dixon

Miss June Pilgrim, Lee county home adviser, gave the major lesson, "Seeing Ourselves as Children See Us," when members of the Dixon Evening, Ma-Di-Na and South Dixon Home Bureau units met at Loveland Community House. Miss Pilgrim said the ability to put yourself in your children's place is one of the most valuable contributions that can be made in family living. "Children grow up in homes but also must grow out of homes."

Mrs. William Shippert of Ma-Di-Na presided during the meeting which was opened with community singing led by Mrs. Norman W. Dietrich, Dixon Evening unit. Mrs. Charles Nix, Dixon Evening unit, was at the piano.

Mrs. Lee Ackert, Ma-Di-Na, gave the health lesson on Blue Cross insurance. Legislative chairman of the Dixon Evening unit, Mrs. Robert Perry, told about birth certificates.

"Christmas gifts from the kitchen," the minor lesson, was given by Mrs. Henry Schumacher and Mrs. Clarence Naas of South Dixon. They had a display of handicraft from the kitchen.

It was announced an officers training school for new officers of the Lee County Home Bureau will be held at 1:30 p. m. Dec. 3, at Loveland Community House.

Hostesses for the meeting were from all three units. Candelabra holding lighted tapers and a centerpiece of chrysanthemums and daisies added to the fall theme of the table. Mrs. Archie Brown, retiring Lee County Home Bureau president, and Mrs. Charles Hank of the South Dixon unit, presided. Mrs. Robert Stauffer, Dixon Evening unit, had charge of recreation.

It May Be Starting a Million Miles!

Happy, happy man! His time has come to own the "car of cars" . . . and there he goes for the first thrilling ride at the wheel.

But what an additional thrill he would have if he could look down the long, long road that car will travel before it comes to its final stop!

For then he would know, beyond peradventure, that he has just taken possession of one of the mechanical masterpieces of all time!

Reliable statistics kept by a great tire manufacturer show, for instance, that certain Cadillacs in its testing fleet have actually approached a million miles.

Naturally, when you take possession of a new Cadillac, you are not thinking of owning and driving it for such a spectacular distance.

But consider, if you will, what this phenomenal endurance foretells for your own period of ownership.

It is your finest possible guarantee that the thrill and the satisfaction of your first mile at the wheel will go on and on—until, with reluctance, you pass the car along to another proud and happy owner.

And it means, of course, that the value of your Cadillac will endure. Even its second, and third, and fourth owners will find that its relative value is amazing. There is almost always a demand for a Cadillac, regardless of its age.

Of course, the great thrill of owning a Cadillac comes from the car's wonderful performance and its marvelous prestige.

But it is so nice to reflect, as you sit at the wheel, that your pride is practical—and that your satisfaction is coming from a sound investment.

Is it time for you to think about a Cadillac? If so, we would be happy to see you any time.

Ike Carried Illinois by 443,407 Votes

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Dwight D. Eisenhower won Illinois by a margin of 443,407 votes at the Nov. 4 election, official returns showed today.

Voters approved two of the four proposed amendments to the state Constitution, the canvass showed. And the total number of ballots cast in the election reached a record high of 4,583,306, surpassing the old state mark of 4,262,196 set in 1940.

Reveal Totals

The State Electoral Board, which announced the official figures, reported Eisenhower polled 2,457,327 votes as against 2,013,920 for Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson. The defeated Democratic presidential nominee carried only four of the 102 counties.

Eisenhower received 1,188,972 votes in Cook county and 1,268,354 downstate. Stevenson's total was divided 1,172,454 in Cook county and 841,466 downstate.

Adopted by close margins were changes eliminating state constitutional ceilings on salaries for certain county officials, and removing double liability for stockholders of state banks.

The salary limitation amendment carried, 2,024,823 to 979,401, and the banking amendment by a vote of 2,074,985 to 944,845.

Under the "gateway" amending procedure, constitutional changes require either a two-thirds majority of those voting on the propositions or a majority of all votes cast at the election.

Amendment Beates
An amendment to allow classification of property for taxation was defeated, attracting only a 60 per cent favorable majority. The vote was 1,783,596 for, 1,139,406 against.

The amendment to permit sheriffs and county treasurers to succeed themselves in office also failed to gain a sufficient majority. The vote was 1,953,596 for, 1,139,406 against.

In state races, Republican Charles F. Carpentier beat out Democrat Edward J. Barrett for secretary of state by 9,303 votes.

Republican William G. Stratton's plurality over Democrat Sherwood Dixon for governor was 237,642 votes.

NEAR MISS—Virginia Ann Johnson, Indiana's representative in the 1952 "Miss Universe" contest, shows her collar, "Ronnie," a hole in the window of her Indianapolis home where a bullet crashed six inches from her head. The Butler university sophomore doubts it was a stray shot, but has no idea why anyone would fire at her.

Beauty Queen Almost Hit By Bullet

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Police couldn't decide today whether a shot that barely missed an Indianapolis beauty queen in her home was fired intentionally or came from a hunter's stray shot.

Virginia Ann Johnson, a pretty blonde sophomore at Butler university, said a bullet that went through a picture window missed her by only six inches last Saturday.

She was Miss Indianapolis in the 1951 competition for Miss America and, as Miss Indiana, was a finalist in the Miss Universe beauty contest in Long Beach, Calif., this year.

The home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Evert Johnson, is in a secluded area northeast of the city. Hunters frequent the woods across the boulevard, but police said none was seen that day.

The beauty queen's mother said her daughter received two anonymous telephone calls that day from a man who made "off-color remarks."

All Price, Wage Controls May End Soon

Senator Says Truman Will Halt Curbs

Expect Executive Order by Jan. 3, Maybank Claims

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Administration leaders discounted today a report that President Truman was considering scrapping wage and price controls before Congress goes back into session Jan. 3.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A quick end to all price and wage controls by order of President Truman was seen as a possibility today in the wake of two major developments:

1. Sen. Maybank (D-SC), chairman of the Senate Banking Committee, said in a broadcast from Charleston Monday night he has information Truman is considering doing away with such controls by executive order before Jan. 3.

2. T. H. Woods resigned as price stabilizer. His resignation was peppered with criticism of Congress for a controls law which Woods contended favors "special interests."

"I have information that the President is now considering doing away with price and wage controls," Maybank said when interviewed. He said he thought the Republicans would do away with such curbs.

In replies to other questions, Maybank said this would be done before the Republican-dominated Congress takes over Jan. 3.

Woods told reporters the present controls law "is weak and must undergo a very serious overhauling by the Congress to take out some of the special-interest amendments and substitute more quality of sacrifice among all elements of the economy."

He said that "it seems all I've done since taking this job is to sign orders for price increases and I haven't enjoyed the role."

Has Some Plans
Before leaving the Office of Price Stabilization this weekend, Woods said he hopes to:

1. Decide, probably tomorrow, whether retail beef ceilings can be rolled back in keeping with lower prices now being paid farmers for live cattle. He said he expects final recommendations from his staff today as to whether this is feasible.

2. Issue orders suspending controls on men's, boys' and women's and misses' clothing. At least one of these orders is due to be announced tonight.

Woods was rent controller until he succeeded former Georgia Gov. Ellis Arnall as price chief three months ago.

Rule Death at Franklin Grove Is Accidental

FRANKLIN GROVE (Special)—A coroner's jury today declared the death of Charles Wesley Ross, 82, retired farmer fatally injured Monday on his farm 5 miles south of here, the result of a skull fracture suffered in an accident.

Testimony at the inquest, conducted at 9 o'clock by Coroner Robert Preston in Hicks funeral home, revealed that Ross' head had been crushed when a well pump slipped through a chain as it was being unloaded from a truck about 11 a. m. Monday.

A flange at the base of the pump struck Ross' head and crushed it against the box of the truck. He died 10 minutes later.

Ross had been helping his son, Richard, and Jack Moore unload the pump. Moore lives in the farm's tenant house.

Survivors besides his son include his widow, Anna, and a foster son, Howard, whose address was not available.

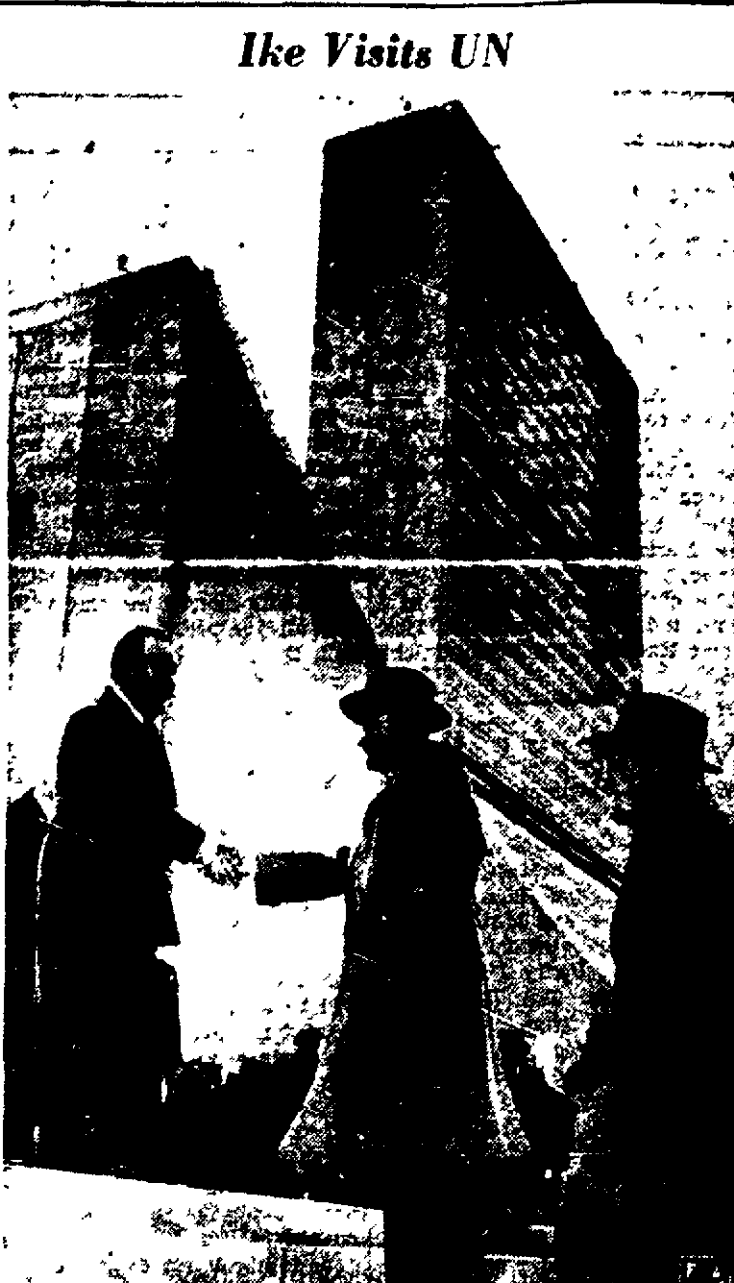

Services Friday
Services will be held at 2 p. m. Friday in the Congregational church at Lee Center. Burial will be in Woodside cemetery, Lee Center.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ross, he was born Feb. 22, 1870, in Bradford township.

Friends may call at Hicks funeral home between 7 and 9 p. m. Wednesday. The body will be taken to the family residence Thursday.

Card of Thanks
I wish to express thanks and appreciation to all friends and neighbors, to Drs. Edwards Sr. and Jr., the nurses of RSB hospital, for cards and beautiful flowers, sent during my stay at the hospital.

How to Tell Hunters From Deer

By WARREN PAGE

Shooting Editor

Last fall I was parked on a stump in the Pennsylvania hardwoods, waiting for some more ambitious gent to push a buck my way. Suddenly a stick snapped over in some scrub growth and a stealthy movement showed gray-brown through the tangle. I eased my rifle around to the ready and tightened my thumb on the safety, set to nail him.

And out stepped a lad in his late teens, red-capped right enough, but with a dirty sweat-shirt on that was as close to the color of an old buck's back as cloth is likely to get.

How often has that happened to you? How many times have you seen your Uncle Harry or a complete stranger, a man quite without horns or hooves, step out when you were all ready to pot a deer? And have you ever had the unpleasant experience of looking down some other guy's gun barrel from the wrong end? If a sportsman has been in the deer woods often enough and long enough, he has some time been at both ends of that barrel.

There are those who feel that wearing lots of red is the best guarantee that said barrel won't belch sudden death. Actually, whether hunters wear red, purple, or sky-blue with a floy-dot, the best guarantee against the "I thought it was a deer" kind of shooting accident is the use of common sense by the chaps at both ends of the gun.

Nothing in the deer woods that should be shot at is red, true; and it is also true that those states that have enacted laws requiring some red on hunters have noted a reduction in the number of mistaken-identity accidents.

But bear in mind these other points: A small amount of red—as for example your cap only—may be concealed by brush when you pussyfoot into the ken of Trigger-Happy Joe. He may see only your gray pants or jacket. Plain unbroken red, no matter how much of it you wear, isn't red to many color-blind individuals any more than it is danger-red to a deer, also blind to colors as we know them. Red broken by strong checks or bands of black may not see mas vivid to the man with normal vision, but it is more easily recognized as man-covering by the color-blind.

There are those who argue that dark blues and greens are safer colors than reds or oranges, since nothing shootable wears green or blue hair; but the brightest hues are still in widest use, most tied in with danger in the average mind, most easily spotted by the ordinary eyes.

And finally, even if you sling a small buck over your shoulders to lug him back to camp, Trigger-Happy Joe may prevent you from getting there unless you drape your trophy with the red you're wearing. You won't want to wear any coat anyway if that buck has been eating well. Better whistle like a cageful of canaries as you stagger toward cabin or car.

One of the best common-sense guarantees of human safety for the chap on the other end of the rifle, the trigger end, is the modern telescopic sight. It used to be said that no man had ever been shot by a scoped-up rifle when mistaken for a deer.

This is not quite true, since Maine's recent study of hunting accidents turned up one or two such cases. However, the trigger-holders in those instances were obviously neurotics incapable of self-control. They probably would have blasted at a movement or a sound even if their guns had been equipped with radar.

Japan Says, 'No, Thanks,' To Invitation

TOKYO (AP)—Japanese officials today rejected U. S. Rep. Joseph W. Martin's suggestion that Japan enter the Korean War.

Martin, House Republican leader, made the suggestion as a passing remark in Washington, D. C.

Today, at a press conference for foreign newsmen, a spokesman for the foreign ministry said Japan's participation in the fighting in Korea "is out of the question at this time."

Monday, Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida, in a major policy speech, said Japan is in no position to re-arm.

Rock Falls Man Held for Non-Support

Reckless driving led to the apprehension of Harold Portner, Rock Falls, who is wanted by Rock Falls police on charges of non-support of his wife and child.

Portner was arrested after a wild chase by Harry Miller, Carroll county sheriff, through Savannah and Thompson, early Saturday morning.

Sheriff Miller said that a car operated by Portner raced along Savannah streets almost running into him. He wasn't able to catch up with the car until it was south of Thompson.

Miller found three boys in the car including Portner, who had rented the vehicle. Two boys were released.

Portner was tried before Justice of the Peace Frank Schroeppel, Mt. Carroll and fined $50 and costs. Unable to pay the fine, he is serving it out in the county jail.

Word of the apprehension reached Rock Falls police who sent a hold over order for the return of Portner to Rock Falls to face the non-support charges.

Hunter Fined In Court Here

The hunter, became the hunted Sunday.

Melvin Schmall, 306 Eells av., was tracked down and arrested Sunday for trespassing on the property of Roy Gooch, Lee Center township, while hunting.

According to Deputy Sheriff Stouffer, Gooch called the sheriff's office and reported the trespasser. A warrant for his arrest was issued.

At a hearing Monday before Justice of the Peace Merrick, Schmall was fined $5 and costs. He pleaded guilty.

Poor Taxpayer Will Get More Help From Government in '53

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Internal Revenue Bureau has instructed its field offices to make things easier for taxpayers when taxpaying time comes around next year.

Outlining a new program to go into effect from Jan. 1 to March 17, Assistant Commissioner of Internal Revenue Justin Winkie told field officers in a letter made public today that taxpayers must find a "new and improved service" this time.

Can Give Help
Winkie emphasized that by tax time an eight-month reorganization of the bureau will have been completed, and taxpayers seeking help with their returns will have "their first real opportunity to observe how reorganization affects them personally."

Tax officials not only expect to give better service but they expect more work. There were some 54 million tax returns last year and the bureau expects from 57 to 58 million this year.

Winkie made these down-to-earth suggestions on how tax offices should help simplify things for taxpayers:

1. Don't close the door in the face of taxpayers just because official office hours are over.

2. Man telephones to answer queries in the evenings, during lunch hours and on Saturdays. All offices to stay open until midnight the last night before returns are due.

Benches, Too
3. Put out some chairs and benches for those who have been standing in line and make sure there are chairs for all the aged and infirm.

4. Monitors should be on hand to question puzzled taxpayers before they join a queue and to divide them into lines for different categories of information, so that no one waits in line only to learn his question is being answered elsewhere.

5. As nearly as possible, personnel assigned to information booths and as monitors should be "female revenue agents" and they should be rotated frequently "to avoid the risk of normal irritation stemming from having to answer similar questions over and over again."

Detroit Tigers Sign Kentucky Cage Player

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Tigers announced today they had signed Gene Neff, 20-year-old University of Kentucky basketball player, as an outfielder for a substantial bonus.

The Tigers declined to name the bonus figure but denied a newspaper report that it came to $30,000.

Neff was scheduled to be a Kentucky basketball starter this season until Kentucky dropped its schedule at the request of the NCAA.

Neff weighs 195 and stands 6-2. He bats right-handed and hit .330 at Kentucky last spring.

Colorado Punter Fights for Lead

BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—Zack Jordan of Colorado university who set a new collegiate football punting record two years ago, is second in the national ranking to Southern California's Desmond Koch. Each has one more game.

Through last Saturday, Jordan had an average of 43.2 yards for 56 punts this season. His 1950 record, which still stands, is 48.2 yards. Koch's current mark is 43.44 yards average in 45 punts.

MSC Still Tops in AP Grid Poll

NEW YORK (AP) — Michigan State's undefeated football power-house, which closed out its season with a whopping 62-13 victory over Marquette Saturday, was voted the nation's No. 1 football team today for the seventh straight week.

Southern California and Georgia Tech, also unbeaten, were second and third in the Associated Press weekly poll of the nation's sports-writers and sportscasters. The 10th and final poll will be conducted next week.

The major change in the top 10 this week was the absence of once-feared Maryland, which dropped with a thud from eighth place to 15th after bowing, 27-7, to Alabama. And Alabama, 14th a week ago, jumped up into eighth.

Michigan State polled 88 first-place votes out of 149 cast to roll up 1,400 points.

Southern Cal moved up from fourth last week to second on the basis of its 14-1 victory over UCLA, which sends the Trojans to the Rose Bowl.

Await Stratton's Picks for Top State Jobs

Will Make Decisions Known Soon

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—Gov. Stevenson Jan. 12, Stratton soon will be making his choices not only for state cabinet positions but a lot of other important posts as well.

When he succeeds Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson Jan. 12, Stratton is expected to lose little time installing Republicans in virtually all key spots of the state executive branch.

Attention naturally focuses in a changeover on the top-salaried jobs, like the 13 code department directorships which starting next year will pay $12,000 apiece with one exception. The exception is the director of aeronautics who will get $9,000.

Top Jobs Open
Commanding the higher figure will be directors of finance, revenue, labor, agriculture, welfare, public works, health, public safety, insurance, conservation, mines and minerals, and registration and education.

Stevenson replaced 12 of the code directors he inherited four years ago, keeping only Dr. Roland R. Cross who has headed the state health department since 1940.

Equal in importance to most of the cabinet posts are such less conspicuous positions as state purchasing agent, chief state highway engineer and state supervising architect.

The men who fill these posts will be involved in the spending of millions of state dollars. The purchasing agent and architect get $10,000 apiece, the chief highway engineer $12,000 to $18,000.

The average citizen is even less acquainted with dozens of other sensitive offices Stratton will fill. A superintendent of food and dairies, the trouble spot for Governor Stevenson in the horsemeat scandal, will be picked. This job will pay $8,000 a year, the same amount as assistant code directors will draw in all departments but aeronautics.

Other Jobs Available
In the same salary bracket are superintendents of livestock, industry, parks, state police and registration.

Stratton must decide if he wants a new civil defense director at $10,000 a year. He undoubtedly will name a $7,500 superintendent of department reports, to act as his official publicity spokesman, and an $8,500 superintendent of printing.

There will be some new selections on the state pardon and parole board which has a $7,500 chairman and four members at $7,000 apiece.

The same goes for the state industrial commission, with a chairman for $10,000 and four members each with a new salary of $8,500. The commission settles workmen's compensation claims.

In 1951, the legislature provided for staggered terms of office on the pardon board and the industrial commission, along with some other agencies not already so organized.

Senate Decides
Because the subsequent appointments were made after the legislature adjourned and lack required senate confirmation, it will be up to the senate to determine in January whether some of the present appointees stay in office or Stratton can immediately replace them all.

The pardon board chairman is Joseph D. Lohman of Chicago. Members are Sam Rndt, Tappan Gregory, Albert A. Manus and Charles R. Myers. The industrial commission is headed by B. Jay Knight of Rockford. Members are Charles A. Daly, Nicholas M. Pietro, John Moulin and James A. Roman.

Stratton can name successors on the Illinois Commerce Commission to James J. Danaher of Chicago and Dale Sutton of Pekin, both Democrats whose terms expire in January. Their salaries are $12,000 a year.

Some to Remain
Assured of continued tenure are Walter T. Fisher until January, 1955, and June Gil Van Keuren and Cyrus J. Colter, both until 1956. Fisher, a Republican, has served as chairman since 1949. Stratton has the power to designate another commissioner as chairman if he chooses. One of the two new appointees must be a Democrat, since the law provides that only three commissioners can belong to one political party.

The incoming governor at most can fill one place on the three-man Illinois Liquor Control Commission before 1955.

The Democratic chairman, Chalmers Taylor, and W. Willard Wirtz, Democratic member, have two and four years, respectively, to serve in their present six year terms.

Republican member Sol A. Hoffman has been appointed to a six year term expiring in 1957, but has not been confirmed by the senate. The liquor commission chairman draws $7,000 a year, and members $6,000 each.

STRANGE SHAD
The shad belongs to the herring family. It passes the most of its existence at sea, but little is known of its habits and movements when out of rivers.

Reds Release GIs Arrested While Hunting

BERLIN — (U) — Three American soldiers picked up by the Russians while rabbit hunting were released today after two days in Soviet captivity. They said they were questioned sharply about military matters but otherwise "very well treated."

The trio was nabbed while hunting in a wooded area on the outskirts of Berlin Sunday. A German girl, Ingeborg Rickens, who was arrested with them, also was turned loose today.

All Enlisted Men
The soldiers, all enlisted men with a transportation truck company of the Sixth Regiment, were Cpl. James H. Higgs of Toone, Tenn., Pvt. Gene W. Adden of Nokomis, Ill., and Pvt. Clifford D. Michael of Middleport, O.

They said East German Communist police arrested them at gunpoint shortly before noon Sunday, told them they were inside the Russian zone and turned them over to Russian interrogators at a Soviet army command post.

Held Separately
They were held in separate rooms and supplied with coal for little stoves. The food "was gooeey," Adden said, "but we had enough. And all or normal requests were met, such as more coal for the stoves."

"They asked us the usual military questions about our units, but they didn't ask any political questions," Higgs said.

The Russians gave back their shotguns and other personal possessions when they released them.

No Mass Firing of Adlai's Employees, Stratton States

JOLIET, Ill. (U) — There will be no sweeping indiscriminate firing of all members of the Stevenson administration, Governor-elect William G. Stratton indicated Monday.

The Republican who will become the state's chief executive in January told a news conference, "There are some career men who are doing a good job and should not be disturbed."

He did not name them.

Back From Vacation
Stratton, returned from a vacation in Arizona since his victory in the Nov. 4 election, said he might confer with Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson before the Democratic governor leaves office. Stratton planned to go to Springfield today, then back to Morris for Thanksgiving Day with his family, and return to Springfield Friday.

The governor-elect declined to say whether he will appoint Martin H. Hollingsworth of Joliet state finance director. Hollingsworth, state Republican chairman, has been reported in line for the job. The party chairman met Stratton at Joliet and drove him to his home in Morris Monday.

Talks on Finances
Stratton told reporters he hoped to improve state finances by: Greater gross sales with a resultant yield from the sales tax, a bigger return from the gasoline tax, and more economy in government.

"Expenses will be cut," he said, "not by decreasing services but by reducing waste."

He said he will announce one cabinet appointment Friday and others after he has had an opportunity to interview those under consideration.

U. of I. Finds Students Are 'Good Risk'

URBANA-CHAMPAIGN, Ill. — Of more than two million dollars in student loans made at the University of Illinois in the last 53 years, only two tenths of one percent has been uncollectable.

Since 1899, loans totaling $2,429,715 have been made, and only $4,953 had to be written off, C. C. DeLong, university bursar, revealed today in an annual report. In the same time income not only has covered collection expenses including losses, but has added $139,400 to the principal of the funds.

Now available for student loans is $553,941. Last year $2,390 was added from gifts and income of loan endowment. New loans totaled $259,361.

The 2,857 short term loans made numbered 25 per cent fewer than in the previous year, and the 313 long term loans 19 per cent more than the year before.

DeLong commented, "for the past dozen years the funds available for student loans at the university have been more than adequate to meet the demand; today there is more urgent need for money for scholarships than for increasing the loan funds."

A half cup of chopped dates added to a package of prepared muffin mix makes a delicious hot bread for breakfast, lunch or supper.

Continue Search For Globemaster

ANCHORAGE, Alaska—(AP)—The Air Force, Navy and Coast Guard combined forces today for a sweeping search of the island-dotted northern Gulf of Alaska for a lost C-124 Globemaster and its 52 passengers and crew.

The huge Globemaster, the third military air transport lost in Alaska since Nov. 7, vanished Saturday on a flight here from McChord Air Base, Wash.

A report that wreckage had been sighted near Middleton Island caused some excitement Monday. It was later discovered that the "wreckage" was driftwood and seaweed.

It Will Cost More to See Ike Take Oath

WASHINGTON (AP)—Even the prices of tickets for the President's inauguration parade are going up.

Parade tickets more or less went on sale Monday, at a price of around a third more than they cost four years ago. People paid from $2 to $10 for a seat to see President Truman ride by. It will cost from around $3 to $15 to watch President Eisenhower.

Taxes Take Chunk

Most of the increase is due to taxes. Four years ago the parade committee either forgot—or didn't know about—the amusement tax. They later had to cough up 20 per cent of the gross for the tax collector.

This time the tax will be added to each ticket.

been let for the erection of temporary stands, so no one knows the cost.

60,000 Seats

Some 60,000 seats will be put up along the parade route. The choice seats—the $15 ones—will be in Lafayette Park, across Pennsylvania Avenue from the White House.

None of these 4,000 seats will be put on sale for the general public. They're going to Republican bigwigs who have waited years for this day, and to several schools in the area which always buy blocks of inauguration seats.

Kennedy, Son, Disagree on Foreign Policy

BOSTON—(AP)—Joseph P. Kennedy, former ambassador to Great Britain, says he and his son, Sen. elect John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) are "in complete disagreement" on foreign policy.

"I couldn't possibly have a worse argument with anyone about foreign policy than I have had with my son," the elder Kennedy told a high school association meeting Monday night.

The former ambassador said he is an "isolationist" because I don't think the kind of help we're giving has produced anything like the results it was supposed to produce."

Spends 3 Cents In 'Campaign' For Reelection

ST. LOUIS—Circuit Judge W. C. Mayfield reported an expenditure of just 3 cents in filing his report of "campaign" expenditures with the circuit clerk in the recent general election.

The money, said Judge Mayfield, purchased a stamp. There were no contributors—the 3 cents came from his own pocket.

The stamp was used on a letter to the secretary of state in which the judge filed his declaration of retention.

In the Missouri non-partisan court plan, voters simply decide whether a circuit judge is to be retained. Judge Mayfield was.

Gets Results, Even in Jail

OAKLAND, Calif.—(AP)—Even in jail City Councilman Lester Grant has an eye out for improvements.

Sentenced to five days for speeding, Grant entered jail Friday.

He quickly found fault with the food, and reported roaches in his cell.

Being a councilman, he got quick results—a DDT spraying of the entire jail.

He said he'll take up the food complaint at today's meeting of the council, at which he'll be chaperoned by a bailiff.

Many gallons of water may be evaporated in a day from a tree.

Out Our Way

Sister Kenny Some Improved

NEW WINDSOR, Ill.—(AP)—John Spivey reported to Mercer county authorities today that by "glars who broke into his home Saturday stole a collection of foreign coins he valued at $3,000.

INLAND CITY

Indianapolis is one of the world's most populous cities not situated on navigable water, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Her condition tonight was described as "more comfortable."

Today or Tomorrow... You'll Find
NONE AS NEW AS Nash!

"Rembrandt of Automobile Design", Pinin Farina is the world's foremost custom car designer. His royal crest appears on only the costliest hand-crafted cars—and on Nash Golden Airflytes.

LOOK OVER the new cars that are being introduced these days. You'll find none as new as the Nash Golden Airflyte. No other cars can offer the ahead-of-the-time continental styling of Pinin Farina. Only in Nash can you find such exclusive features as the Airliner

Reclining Seats, Twin Beds, Weather Eye Conditioned Air System. Yes—compare them all, feature by feature. You'll agree—the distinctive new Nash Airflyte leads the whole world in beauty, performance, economy and comfort—today—tomorrow—and in the future!

Farina styling means new beauty and comfort with the accent on roominess. Widest front and rear seats of any car. Even Reclining Seats and Twin Beds if you wish.

Farina styling narrows front pillars to eliminate "blind spots". New continental sloping hood shows you more of the road for safer, easier driving.

Farina styling is complemented by the new Super-Jetfire engine—proved in competition the world over for performance, endurance and economy.

Farina styling features new "Road-Guide" fenders to give the eye an aiming point for easy parking and passing.

Farina styling provides more than 170 square feet of usable floor space in luggage compartment. Tail light conceals gas intake.

Farina styling is functional and practical. Wide doors are square-cut for easy access.

Farina styling gives greatest eye-level visibility. Widest one-piece windshield—pioneered by Nash on all models. Widest rear window.

Farina styling makes full use of Airflyte Construction for greater strength, safety and rigidity—and lasting freedom from body-bolt squeaks and rattles.

Farina styling incorporates enclosed front wheels to cut air drag. Exclusive Airflex Front Suspension levels road bumps—absorbs shocks and noise.

Boyle's Vice: Can't Stand To Throw Anything Away

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK —(AP)—Every man's life is a long war between the angel of neatness and the devil of disorder.
In my case the devil has had a hammerlock on the angel as long as I can remember.
I like it that way. My two great heroes of the twentieth century are the Collyers, elderly brothers who spent a lifetime filling their old brownstone mansion with fabulous junk.
Whenever I speak longingly of building a home, my wife, Frances, says:
Wife Is Critical
"Where do you want to build it?—In the center of the city dump?"
She has this attitude because she has spent 15 hopeless years trying to cure me of the incurable habit of collecting trash and holding on to things that perhaps were better thrown away.
"You have never learned the art of letting go of things," she says. "Don't you know that is a sign of insecurity? You save everything but your fingernail clippings, and I wouldn't be surprised to find you were storing them away some place."

The future home I daydream of will have, first of all, a tremendous basement and a mighty attic. The basement is for my wife to keep as bare and clean as she chooses.

"But the attic is for me to mess up anyway I want to," I tell her. "It will be locked and there will be a sign on the door saying, 'no admission—this means you.'"

Will Fix Attic

I am going to fix that attic against the rainy day of retirement. It is going to have 26 big storage trunks in it, each one initialed with a letter of the alphabet. Each trunk will be a treasure box of the things along the way I have worn, or gathered, or saved.

Old magazines will go in the trunk marked "M," old shoes in the one labeled "S," old letters in the one that says "L," and miscellaneous objects will be stored under "X."

"What are you going to put in the 'A' trunk—apparel or apple cores?" jeers Frances.

RCAF Bomber Crashes, Eight Crewmen Dead

COMOX, B. C. (AP)—A Royal Canadian Air Force four-engine Lancaster bomber on a leisurely supply flight crashed and burned here late yesterday. Eight of the 10 airmen aboard died.

The dead included three crewmen and the five passengers. The pilot and co-pilot survived but were badly hurt.
Cause of the crash has not been determined.

It's Official, Thursday Is Thanksgiving Day

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson has issued a proclamation designating next Thursday as Thanksgiving Day in Illinois.

"The year now drawing to a close has been one of bountiful harvests," his proclamation said. "Industrial employment continues at high levels. Our other material advantages are many and varied."

"Far more to be cherished are our civil and religious liberties, our peaceful methods of composing our political differences, our strong tradition of national unity."

Dixon Soldier Holds New Post

Army Sgt. Herbert Youngren, whose wife, Mildred, lives on R. 1, Dixon, recently became operations sergeant of the 2nd Infantry division artillery in Korea.

The 2nd Infantry gained fame in two of the hardest fought battles of the Korean war. It captured "Heartbreak Ridge" in October, 1951, and took "Old Baldy" last July.

In the National Guard for five years, the sergeant was stationed at Camp Cooke, Calif., before joining the 2nd Division.

188-Page Edition For Centennial In Champaign

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—A 188-page "Centennial-Progress" edition was published Sunday by the Champaign-Urbana News-Gazette to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the founding of the newspaper from which it developed.

The editor traced the history of Champaign County and the News-Gazette, which grew out of the founding of the Urbana Union in 1852. The Champaign Daily News and the Gazette were merged in 1919 under D. W. Stevick, whose widow is now president of the News-Gazette, Inc.

His Birthday, But Boy in Coma Doesn't Know It

HAMILTON, O. (AP)—It was little Danny Neil Lissal's ninth birthday Monday, but he knew nothing about it, just as he's known nothing about his birthdays since he was 3 years old.

Danny has been in a coma since he was hit by a truck in front of his home on Dec. 21, 1948.

Physicians consider his case hopeless.

Community Chest Hits Jack Pot In Old Envelope

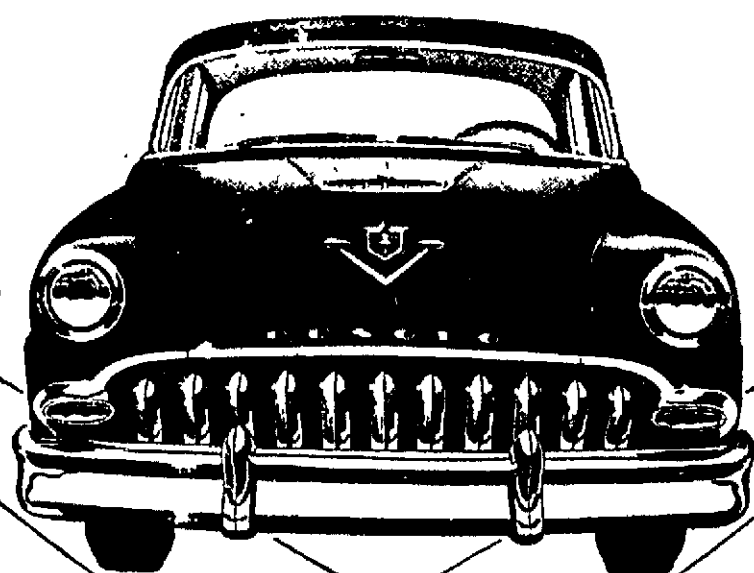

DECATUR, Ill. (AP)—Community chest workers opened an old brown envelope in Monday's mail and out fell a bundle of currency. It added up to $2,380 in $100, $50, $20 and $10 bills. The only communication with it was a note reading, "a donation from a friend." The envelope was mailed in Decatur Saturday.
